

The Supremacy of Scriptures

- ▶ Hermeneutics is a word that refers to the _____ used in correctly interpreting the Bible.
- ▶ There are two things that we must understand when we come to interpreting the Word of God. The first is: What does the text actually _____ and secondly, What does the text actually _____?
- ▶ The overriding supreme Hermeneutic of Bible interpretation is simply this: The best interpreter of the Scriptures is _____ itself.
- ▶ Passages that are challenging and unclear to us are to be interpreted by other places in the Bible that speak more _____ on a said passage or concept.
- ▶ There can only be _____ meaning of a particular text.
- ▶ There are many _____ of the truth but there is only one meaning of a particular truth.
- ▶ Scripture is a seamless _____ and not one link can be pulled out.
- ▶ The Word of God is the _____ of all Standards.
- ▶ The faithfulness and truthfulness of everything and everyone is to be _____ by Scripture.
- ▶ The Scriptures are the _____ and _____ authority.
- ▶ We are to _____ in the written Word of God as the supreme truth and authority.